Cognitive Behavioral Therapy

RESEARCH

Interests Psycho-oncology, specifically intervention/treatment of chemotherapy-related cognitive deficits, distress, trauma/PTSD in cancer populations.

Funded Research Positions

McAlister (PI)

4/5/2005 - Present

National Institutes of Child Health and Human Development
(NICHD)

Methylphenidate (Ritalin) and Memory/Attention in Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI)

Role: Therapist

The primary aim is to test the ability of dopaminergic agonists to ameliorate working memory deficits as compared to a cognitive-behavioral intervention that teaches skills that research suggests can help individuals better deal with memory and attention problems [Memory and Attention Adaptation Training (MAAT): A Brief Cognitive-Behavioral Skills Program for People with Attention and Memory Problems after Mild to Moderate Traumatic Brain Injury (revision of Memory and Attention Adaptation Training (MAAT): A Brief Cognitive-Behavioral Program for Cancer Survivors with Chemotherapy-Associated Attention and Memory Problems)].

1K23DA016574-01A1

McGovern (PI)

5/1/04 -4/30/09

National Institute on Drug Abuse

Cognitive Therapy for PTSD in Addiction Treatment

Role: Therapist/Supervisor

The primary aim is to conduct a small pilot study of the program Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for PTSD in Addiction Treatment, adapted from similar work in mentally ill populations.

2R01MH54006-05A1

Mellman (PI)

5/20/01-10/30/06

NIMH

REM Sleep and Memory Processing During Development of PTSD

Role: Site PI

Karen Lee Gillock, Ph.D.

Cognitive Behavioral Therapy

Involved in various anxiety disorder research projects, specifically PTSD treatment.
Supervisor: Claudia Zayfert, PhD.

1998-1999

Internship Research Assistant

Department of Psychiatry, University of Illinois at Chicago

Involved in projects re-calibrating two measures of social phobia, investigating non-cardiac chest pain patients screened by electron beam CT scan, and examining differences in agoraphobic responses in women with PTSD related to non-sexual versus sexual trauma.

Supervisor: Cheryl Carmin, PhD

1991-1998

Graduate Research Assistant

Department of Psychology, University of Illinois at Chicago

Involved in various research projects concerning inner-city minority adolescents' risk and protective factors in high school dropout.

Supervisor: Olga Reyes, Ph.D

1989-1991

Undergraduate Research Assistant

Department of Psychology, University of Cincinnati, Ohio

Involved in all phases of a number of projects examining the psychophysical nature of sustained attention, gender differences in prose memory of stereotypic content, interpersonal competence and vulnerabilities in children with chronic illness, intervention programming for Alzheimer disease caregivers, and remote memory in the elderly.

Supervisors: Joel Warm, PhD, William Dember, PhD, Donald Schumsky, PhD, Robert Noll, PhD, and Bruce Schefft, PhD

Awards and Honors

2005

New Investigator Award, National Institutes of Health and National Institute of Mental Health
